Nunda Children's Unit Aids Community

The Nunda Children's Protective Association is concluding its 1987 fund drive.

More than $900 was given in scholarship grants to Keshequa Central students, clothing was distributed to individuals and families in need, and some programming was done to assist the KCS Students Against Drunk Driving unit.

The end-of-year contribution will be received and may be mailed or given to Mrs. Isabelle Weir at 68 Mill St. in Nunda.

Short Notes

The Nunda Theater Guild observes its 20th anniversary in 1988. In recognition of this milestone, the Guild will once again present the musical, "Oklahoma," which was the initial production 20 years ago. Auditions have been completed for this "repeat performance" which will be held in the spring.

Monday, Jan. 11, at 7:30 p.m. the Nunda Town Board will meet in the town hall, South Church Street. Residents are welcome to attend.

Monday, Jan. 11, at 7:30 p.m. the Nunda Village Board will meet in the village building. Visitors are welcome to attend.

Tuesday, Jan. 12, at noon the Nunda Chamber of Commerce will meet in the Board Room at Keshequa Central School (Nunda Building).

Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 7:30 p.m. the Nunda Historical Society will meet in the music room at Keshequa Central School (Nunda Building). Mrs. Marjorie Ostrum will present "Readings from Journals of Joseph Lovell." Lovell was a well-known figure in Nunda life many years ago. Members and non-members are invited to attend.

Tuesday, Jan. 19, at 6 p.m., the Nunda 55 and Over Club will meet in the United Methodist Church. Anyone aged 55 or older is welcome to attend. Bring your table service and a dish for the buffet table.
